

WHITNEY KIRKPATRICK AND ROB CLEMENTS

When Whitney Kirkpatrick asked Rob Clements to a Pi Phi function at the University of Arkansas, she didn't know if it would be her last first date. These college sweethearts both returned to their hometowns following graduation, but couldn't stay apart for long. Rob popped the question during a Christmastime visit with Whitney's family, and the two started planning their December 8, 2012, nuptials in Dallas. Their wedding at The Adolphus Hotel featured pink and white colors, elegant details, and Whitney surprised her family at the reception by wearing her mother's wedding gown, which she redesigned into a modern, cocktail dress.
