TAYLOR JOHNSON & CHRIS MCLAMB

Taylor and Chris struck up a friendship their freshman year of college and eventually realized that they were in love. "We were never afraid to be our true selves around each other," Taylor says. After a scavenger hunt-style proposal, the couple set their sites on their dream garden wedding at the Nasher. They served peach margaritas and mixed rustic farm tables with graphic orange tablecloths to achieve a sophisticated, Southern-inspired setting. —A.G.
